WHAT CONDITIONS ARE NOT COVERED (Exclusions)

Your tires are not returnable if:

- There is tire damage or failure resulting from improper operation or maintenance, such as: Load, speed and inflation practices causing excessive operational temperatures that exceed tires' capabilities.
- There is tire damage or failure resulting from: Wheel damage or defective mechanical conditions in the vehicle, extreme temperature exposure, misuse, negligence and abusive driving, such as tire spinning, racing, extended use of unpaved roads or accident damage.

NOTE: Tires must be operated in normal highway use within the U.S. and Canada. This offer does not apply to tires used in commercial service including, but not limited to, taxi cabs, police cars, emergency vehicles and non-passenger service. Tires used in racing related activities or competitive events are excluded. The offer is not-transferable and applies only to the vehicle on which the tires were originally installed.
